Note.—Seven of these State associations are incorporated and ten of them receive annual appropriations from their respective States, ranging from $500 to $5,000. These allowances are used to defray the expenses of annual conventions and to publish the reports of proceedings. In other States such proceedings are published in connection with annual reports of the boards and departments of agriculture.

Several of the older organizations have published annual reports and sets of these, which it is very difficult to now obtain, embrace much dairy information of a valuable and practical character. The same is true of the annual reports of the American Dairymen's Association (1866-80) and the Northwestern Dairymen's Association (1867-83); both of these organizations were disbanded because their field of eperations had become occupied by the younger associations in the several States.

To protect the health of the domestic animals of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the importation of dairy cows and neat cattle for breeding purposes into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is hereby prohibited, excepting when such cows and neat cattle are accompanied by a certificate from an inspector, whose competency and reliability are certified to by the authorities charged with the control of the diseases of domestic animals in the State from whence the cattle came, certifying that they have been examined and subjected to the tuberculin test and are free from disease.

Section 2. That in lieu of an inspection certificate as above required, the cattle may be detained at suitable stock-yards nearest to the State line on the railroad over which they are shipped, and there examined at the expense of the owner, or cattle as above specified from points outside of the State may, under such restrictions as may be provided by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board, be shipped in quarantine to their destination in Pennsylvania, there to remain in quarantine until properly examined at the expense of the owner, and released by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

Section 3. The State Live Stock Sanitary Board is hereby authorized and empowered to prohibit the importation of domestic animals into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, whenever in their judgment such measures may be necessary for the proper protection of the health of the domestic animals of the Commonwealth, and to make and enforce rules and regulations governing such traffic as may from time to time be required.

Section 4. That any person, firm, or corporate body violating the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall, in the proper court of the county in which such cattle are sold, offered for sale, delivered to a purchaser, or in which such cattle may be detained in transit, for each offense, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than one hundred dollars, or be punished by imprisonment for not less than ten days, and not exceeding thirty days, either or both, at the discretion of court. Such person, firm or corporate body shall be liable for the full amount of the damages that may result from the violation of this act.

Section 5. The State Live Stock Sanitary Board is hereby charged with the enforcement of this act, and is authorized to see that its provisions are obeyed, and to make, from time to time, such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for its enforcement.

Section 6. That this act shall go into effect January first, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight.

Approved—May 26, 1897.

RULES FOR THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE ACT OF MAY 26, 1897.

Dairy cows and neat cattle for breeding purposes may be brought into Pennsylvania from other states only in accordance with one of the three following provisions:

1. The cattle may be examined and tested with tuberculin in the State from whence they come by an inspector whose competency and reliability are certified to by the authorities charged with the control of the diseases of animals in that State. Special blanks for reporting upon such examinations will be furnished by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board upon application. Cattle thus examined, found to be free from disease and brought into Pennsylvania, shall remain in the possession of the person or persons who own them when brought into Pennsylvania until the inspection reports have been approved by a member of the State Live Stock Sanitary Board or by an agent authorized to approve such reports. After such approval the cattle ean be disposed of without restriction.

2. Dairy cows and neat cattle for breeding purposes may, if shippers so elect, be examined and tested with tuberculin at suitable stock-yards nearest to the State line on the railroad over which they are shipped. Such examinations are to be made by inspectors approved by this Board and at the expense of the owner of the cattle.

Cattle so inspected shall be marked with a suitable metal tag or shall be accurately described so that they can be reliably identified, and a report on the examination and test, with directions for identification, shall be submitted without delay to this Board.

3. Dairy cows and neat cattle for breeding purposes may be brought into Pennsylvania without previous examination only under the following conditions:

A. Notification to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board that it is proposed to bring certain dairy cows or neat cattle for breeding purposes into this State. Such notice must be accompanied by the number and a full and accurate description of the cattle, the names and addresses of the owner and consignee, the date upon which they are to be brought into the State, the route over which they are to be driven or shipped, and the destination.

A blank form to use in rendering this report will be sent upon application to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

B. Under this quarantine it is required that the cattle shall be kept apart from other cattle, that they shall remain in the possession of the person or persons who bring them into this State and that their milk shall not be sold or used without previous sterilization by boiling.

Dairy cows or neat cattle for breeding purposes brought into Pennsylvania under this provision that are found upon examination or tset to be tuberculous, shall be strictly isolated and quarantined, their milk cannot be used for any purpose whatever without previous sterilization by boiling, and they shall not be moved to other premises excepting for slaughter. No compensation shall be allowed for such cattle.

EXTRACTS FROM THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE STATE LIVE STOCK SANITARY BOARD OF PENNSYL-VANIA.

Upon application from owners of tuberculous cattle, the State Live Stock Sanitary Board will furnish tuberculin and inspections free, on condition that the cattle owner will agree to:

- 1. Assist in the examination.
- 2. Separate the cattle found to be tuberculous from those that are healthy, and have them cared for separately until disposed of, as directed by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.
- 3. Disinfect the stables and correct faulty sanitary conditions, as directed by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

4. Discontinue the use of milk and cream from infected cows, except when boiled or heated to 185 degrees F. and kept at this temperature for five minutes.

Upon application from owners of dairy herds, the State Live Stock Sanitary Board will conduct or direct inspections of cattle and cattle stables and yards, and will furnish certificates showing the health of the animals and the sanitary condition of their surroundings: Provided, That the applicant will agree to bear the necessary expense of such inspections.

Since it is manifestly impossible for the State Live Stock Sanitary Board to investigate all rumors or unsubstantiated reports of contagious disease among domestic animals, the State Veterinarian may, if in his opinion there exists a reasonable doubt as to the dangerous, contagious or infectious character of a reported disease, request the owners or person in charge of the stock, at his own expense, to have an examination made by a competent veterinarian, and furnish a report from such veterinarian to the Secretary of the Board. In case this request is not complied with, the Board may decline to consider the case.

Office of the Attorney General, Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27, 1897.

Hon. Thomas J. Edge, Secretary of the Board of Agriculture:

Sir: The answer to your request for an interpretation of the Act of June 23, 1897, has been very much simplified by the presence of gentlemen representing the trade. From them it was learned that at least three-fourths of the cheese consumed in Pennsylvania is manufactured out of the State, and in many instances it is impossible to ascertain the name and address of the manufacturer thereof. A jobber in New York city, for instance, may buy cheese from any other State, or even from foreign lands, and it will be impossible for him, in all cases, to know where and by whom the product was manufactured, and it would be out of the question, in such case, for the wholesale or retail dealer in Pennsylvania to obtain that information.

It is contended, however, that the act of June 23, 1897, (P. L. 202), requires the dealer to brand the cheese with the words "Full Cream," "Three-Fourths Cream," &c., according to the class to which it belongs, and also with the name and address of the manufacturer. This last requirement, as we have seen, is in many instances, impossible of performance. The law does not require the performance of an im-The whole purport of the act above named is doubtpossibility. less to prevent the sale of any cheese not the legitimate product of pure unadulterated milk or cream, and at the same time provide the means of identifying the person who may be responsible for a violation of the act. Suppose it were possible to label every cheese manufactured out of the State with the name and address of the manufacturer, how could that aid in protecting the consumer? The manufacturer is beyond the jurisdiction of the authorities of this State, and no punishment can be inflicted on him in case of the violation of the provisions of the act of Assembly. It would seem to be more consonant with the purpose of the act to allow the dealer in such case to mark with his name and address as dealer all such cheese, as thereby he would himself indicate his personal responsibility in case of a violation of the law.

The act also provides that the brands on the cheese shall be in "bold-faced capital letters not less than one inch in height." The gentlemen who appeared before us showed very clearly that in some cases it would simply be impossible to comply with this provision of the law, inasmuch as many cheeses are too small to allow the amount of printing in the type as required by the act. In such case the obvious thing to do would be to come as near as possible to the requirements of the law.

With these observations I therefore advise you as follows:

- 1. That, in case of cheese manufactured in Pennsylvania, you should require the same to be branded "Full Cream," "Three-Fourths Cream," &c., as the case may be, and with the name and address of the manufacturer thereof.
- 2. That, in case of small cheeses, you should require the words "Full Cream," "Three-Fourths Cream," &c., to be printed in large letters and allow the name and address in smaller type, which, however, should be clear and plain, and which ought not to be less than one-half inch in height in any instance.
- 3. In the case of cheese manufactured out of the State, it would be a sufficient compliance with the act of Assembly above named, if the dealer would brand the same in the manner indicated, with his name as dealer thereon, and with his address or place of business also thereon. I am fully convinced that in this way complete effect would be given to the act and the interests of the consumers as well as the commonwealth would be best protected.

Very respectfully,

WILBUR F. REEDER, Deputy Attorney General.
